- 1 Perhaps when the instructor got a little sidetracked into explaining very interesting, though possibly extraneous, subject matters.
- 2 Everyday! In each lecture the instructor tried to get everyone involved with group conversations, or films related to what we're talking about, or working towards a group presentation with others in the class.
- 3 During the lecture, our teacher took the time to answer questions and sometimes spent a significant part of class on these. While random, these tangents were quite interesting.
- 4 The videos, and in class assignments.
- 5 Actually, I was always engaged and excited to be in Professor xxx's class. Everything was interesting and I learned a lot.
